

JOE RUDEMILLER
Vice President, Marketing & Communications

Joe Rudemiller joined 3CDC as a Communications Officer in 2014. He began overseeing the non-profit real estate developer's communications efforts in 2016 and became the organization's Vice President of Marketing & Communications in 2019. In this role, Rudemiller leads communications-related activities pertaining to 3CDC's real estate development work, as well as the overall promotion of Downtown Cincinnati. His responsibilities consist of media relations and oversight of all corporate communications - including email marketing campaigns, grant applications, and tenant marketing support, as well as managing 3CDC's website and the websites of each of its five subsidiaries.

Prior to joining 3CDC, Rudemiller spent seven years as a Human Resources Communications Consultant. He received his Bachelor of Science in Journalism from Ohio University.
